

Essential Words for Bac2

Written by Chesda TheCyber

Lesson 1

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
1	abroad (Adv)	in or to a foreign country	She went abroad to study English in Canada for one year.
2	abrupt (Adj)	sudden and unexpected	The car made an abrupt stop, and everyone lurched forward in their seats.
3	acceptable (Adj)	good enough or allowed	Wearing a T-shirt to class is acceptable, but not to a formal job interview.
4	acclaim (N)	enthusiastic praise and admiration from many people	The young singer received great acclaim after her first concert at the national theater.
5	actually (Adv)	in reality; used to show surprise about the truth	I thought the movie would be boring, but it was actually very exciting.
6	adverse (Adj)	harmful or unfavorable	The farmer could not harvest crops because of adverse weather conditions.
7	advice (N)	helpful suggestions about what someone should do	My teacher gave me useful advice on how to improve my essay before submitting it.
8	attractive (Adj)	pleasing to look at or appealing in some way	The job offer was attractive because it paid well and included free meals.
9	ideal (Adj)	perfect; the best possible for a situation	A quiet library is an ideal place to study without any distractions.
10	persistent (Adj)	continuing without giving up despite difficulties	The persistent student asked questions every day until she fully understood the lesson.
11	wide (Adj)	covering a large area; extending over a great distance	The store sells a wide variety of foods from countries around the world.
12	autonomous (Adj)	independent; able to function without outside control	The robot is autonomous and can clean the entire house without any human help.
13	disapproval (N)	a feeling that something is wrong or unacceptable	Her parents showed their disapproval by shaking their heads when she came home late.
14	disruptive (Adj)	causing problems that stop things from continuing normally	The loud student was disruptive, so the teacher asked him to leave the room.
15	haphazardly (Adv)	in a random way without any plan or order	She packed her bag haphazardly and forgot her passport at home.

Lesson 2

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
16	advanced (Adj)	more developed or modern than others; ahead of the rest	She takes an advanced math class because the regular one is too easy for her.
17	advantage (N)	something that helps you do better or succeed over others	Being tall is a clear advantage when you play basketball.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
18	advent (N)	the arrival or beginning of something important	Since the advent of smartphones, people rarely use paper maps anymore.
19	agile (Adj)	able to move quickly and easily; physically flexible	The gymnast was so agile that she could do a backflip without any effort.
20	albeit (Conj)	even though; although	The movie was long, albeit very entertaining, so no one complained.
21	allow (V)	to let something happen; to give permission for something	The teacher allows students to use a calculator during the math test.
22	appealing (Adj)	attractive or interesting; creating desire or interest	The colorful menu looked very appealing, so we decided to eat at that restaurant.
23	celebrated (Adj)	famous and greatly admired by many people	The celebrated chef opened a beautiful new restaurant downtown last week.
24	contemporary (Adj)	belonging to the present time; modern and up to date	The museum has a large collection of contemporary art made by living artists.
25	distribute (V)	to give out something to many people in different places	The volunteers distributed free food and water to people affected by the flood.
26	encourage (V)	to give someone support and confidence to do something	My coach always encourages me to practice harder before important competitions.
27	energetic (Adj)	full of energy and enthusiasm; very active	The energetic puppy ran around the yard all afternoon without stopping.
28	frail (Adj)	weak and not physically strong; delicate in body	The frail old man needed help carrying his groceries up the stairs.
29	refine (V)	to improve or make something better by making small changes	She refined her speech by practicing it many times in front of a mirror.
30	worthwhile (Adj)	worth the time, money, or effort spent on it	Learning a new language is difficult, but it is absolutely worthwhile in the long run.

Lesson 3

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
31	alter (V)	to change or make something different from what it was	The tailor altered the dress so it would fit her perfectly for the event.
32	analyze (V)	to study something carefully in order to understand it	The scientist analyzed the water sample to check if it was safe to drink.
33	ancient (Adj)	very old; from a very long time ago in history	The tourists visited an ancient temple that was built more than 2,000 years ago.
34	annoying (Adj)	slightly irritating or bothering; causing mild frustration	It is annoying when someone talks loudly on the phone in a quiet library.
35	anticipate (V)	to expect something and prepare for it in advance	The store anticipated a busy weekend, so they hired extra staff to help.
36	conform (V)	to follow rules or behave in the expected or accepted way	Students must conform to school rules, such as wearing a uniform every day.
37	detect (V)	to notice or discover something that is not obvious	The smoke alarm detected the fire and woke everyone in the house up.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
38	enrich (V)	to improve the quality or value of something	Traveling to new countries enriches your understanding of different cultures and people.
39	intensify (V)	to become stronger or make something more intense	The rain began to intensify, so everyone ran inside to stay dry.
40	intolerable (Adj)	too bad, painful, or difficult to accept or deal with	The heat in the small room without a fan was intolerable, so she opened the window.
41	observe (V)	to watch something carefully; to examine in detail	The students observed the butterfly as it slowly came out of its cocoon.
42	ongoing (Adj)	still continuing at the present time; not yet finished	The road repairs are ongoing, so drivers should use an alternative route.
43	propose (V)	to suggest a plan or idea for others to consider	The manager proposed a new schedule to help the team work more efficiently.
44	restore (V)	to bring something back to its original good condition	Workers restored the old painting carefully so it looked like new again.
45	vital (Adj)	extremely important; absolutely necessary for success	Drinking enough water every day is vital for staying healthy and focused.

Lesson 4

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
46	ambiguous (Adj)	having more than one possible meaning; not clear	His instructions were ambiguous, so nobody in the office knew what to do first.
47	apparent (Adj)	easy to see or understand; obvious to most people	It was apparent that the student had not studied because he could not answer anything.
48	arbitrary (Adj)	decided without a clear reason, plan, or logic	The teacher's choice of who spoke first seemed arbitrary since she just pointed randomly.
49	assert (V)	to say something firmly and confidently; to defend strongly	She asserted that she had done nothing wrong and immediately showed her evidence.
50	astounding (Adj)	very surprising and impressive; hard to believe	It was astounding that the small child could solve such a difficult math puzzle.
51	astute (Adj)	very clever at understanding situations quickly	The astute businesswoman noticed the problem before anyone else and fixed it quickly.
52	authorize (V)	to give official permission for something to happen	Only the manager is authorized to approve extra spending beyond the budget limit.
53	deceptively (Adv)	in a way that creates a false impression of reality	The test looked deceptively easy, but most students failed when they saw the questions.
54	determined (Adj)	having a firm and strong decision to achieve something	She was determined to finish the marathon even though her legs hurt badly.
55	elicit (V)	to get a response, reaction, or information from someone	The teacher's funny joke elicited laughter from every student in the classroom.
56	forbid (V)	to say clearly that something is not allowed	The sign on the wall forbids smoking anywhere inside the building.
57	petition (N/V)	a formal request signed by many people; to make such a request	Students signed a petition asking the school to add more healthy lunch options.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
58	relinquish (V)	to give up control or possession of something	The CEO relinquished her leadership position after 20 years and finally retired.
59	resilient (Adj)	able to recover quickly from difficult situations	The resilient child fell off his bike but got right back on and kept riding.
60	tempt (V)	to make someone want to do something, often something wrong	The smell of fresh cookies tempted me to eat one even though I was on a diet.

Lesson 5

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
61	amaze (V)	to fill someone with great surprise and admiration	The magician's incredible trick amazed all the children in the audience.
62	baffle (V)	to confuse someone completely so they cannot understand	The strange noise in the car engine baffled even the most experienced mechanic.
63	bear (V)	to carry; to produce; to tolerate or endure something	She could not bear the loud music next door and called her neighbor to ask them to stop.
64	block (V)	to stop something from moving or happening	A fallen tree blocked the road and caused a long traffic jam during rush hour.
65	blur (V)	to make something hard to see or remember clearly	Running fast blurred the background in the photograph, giving it a sense of speed.
66	brilliant (Adj)	very intelligent; extremely bright or talented	The brilliant student got the highest score in the class without studying for long.
67	caution (V/N)	to warn someone about a possible danger; a warning	The doctor cautioned the patient not to eat fatty food after the surgery.
68	challenge (N)	something difficult that requires effort and skill to do	Learning to ride a bike was a big challenge, but she finally managed to do it.
69	delicate (Adj)	needing careful handling; easily damaged or hurt	The old photograph was so delicate that it could tear apart if touched too hard.
70	enhance (V)	to improve or add to the quality of something	Adding colorful images to a presentation enhances it and keeps the audience interested.
71	persuade (V)	to convince someone to do or believe something	He persuaded his parents to let him stay out late by promising to be careful.
72	replace (V)	to put something new in the place of another thing	She replaced her old broken phone with a brand-new model last week.
73	shed (V)	to lose something naturally; to throw off or remove	Snakes regularly shed their skin as they grow larger over time.
74	unique (Adj)	the only one of its kind; special and unlike anything else	Each person's fingerprint is unique, so no two people have exactly the same one.

Lesson 6

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
75	chiefly (Adv)	mainly; mostly; more than anything else	She works chiefly from home and only goes to the office on Fridays.
76	coarse (Adj)	rough in texture; not smooth or fine	The coarse sand on the beach scratched her feet when she walked without shoes.
77	commonplace (Adj)	very common and ordinary; not special or unusual	It is commonplace for people to pay for things using a smartphone nowadays.
78	comparatively (Adv)	when compared to other similar things	This apartment is comparatively cheap for a city-center location near transport.
79	complex (Adj)	having many parts; very difficult to understand or explain	The tax form was so complex that she hired an accountant to help fill it out.
80	conventional (Adj)	following traditional or widely accepted ways of doing things	A conventional wedding usually includes flowers, a big cake, and formal clothes.
81	curious (Adj)	eager to learn or know more; strange and unusual	The curious child looked inside every drawer in the house to see what was inside.
82	exceedingly (Adv)	to a very high degree; extremely	It was exceedingly cold outside, so everyone wore thick coats, scarves, and gloves.
83	exclusively (Adv)	only for a specific person or group; not shared	This private elevator is used exclusively by hotel guests, not the general public.
84	immense (Adj)	extremely large in size or amount	The immense shopping mall took more than two hours to walk through completely.
85	indeed (Adv)	truly; certainly; used to add emphasis to a statement	The food at the restaurant was indeed delicious, just as everyone had recommended.
86	rigid (Adj)	very strict and not willing to change; physically not able to bend	The company has a rigid rule that all employees must arrive by 9 a.m. every day.
87	routinely (Adv)	done regularly as part of a normal habit or schedule	She routinely goes for a morning jog before eating breakfast every single day.
88	sufficiently (Adv)	to a level that is enough for what is needed	The student had studied sufficiently to pass the exam with a strong grade.
89	visibly (Adv)	in a way that can be clearly seen by others	He was visibly nervous before his presentation, shaking his hands and sweating heavily.

Lesson 7

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
90	appropriate (Adj)	right or suitable for a particular situation	It is appropriate to shake hands when meeting someone for the very first time.
91	clarify (V)	to make something easier to understand by explaining it better	The professor clarified the instructions after many students looked confused.
92	conceal (V)	to hide something so it cannot be seen or found	She concealed the birthday gift under the bed so her sister would not find it.
93	confirm (V)	to say that something is definitely true or will happen	He confirmed the hotel reservation by calling the front desk the day before.
94	constantly (Adv)	all the time; without ever stopping	My little brother constantly asks questions during movies, which is very annoying.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
95	convenient (Adj)	easy to use or reach; saving time and effort	The supermarket near my house is very convenient because I can walk there in five minutes.
96	core (N)	the most important or central part of something	Exercise and good nutrition are the core elements of a healthy lifestyle.
97	critical (Adj)	very important; requiring serious and careful attention	It is critical to wear a seatbelt every single time you travel in a car.
98	distort (V)	to change something so it is no longer accurate or clear	The broken mirror distorted her reflection and made her face look very strange.
99	diverse (Adj)	including many different types of things or people	Our classroom is very diverse, with students from more than ten different countries.
100	prosperous (Adj)	successful and having a lot of money or resources	The town became prosperous after a large technology company opened a factory there.
101	purposefully (Adv)	done with a specific reason or clear intention	She chose her words purposefully so she would not accidentally hurt his feelings.
102	reveal (V)	to show or make known something that was hidden before	The magician revealed the secret behind his trick at the very end of the show.
103	scarcely (Adv)	almost not; barely; only just	He had scarcely slept the night before the exam and felt very tired all day.
104	theoretically (Adv)	according to theory but possibly not in practice	Theoretically, the plan sounds perfect, but it may be very hard to carry out in real life.

Lesson 8

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
105	accelerate (V)	to go faster; to increase in speed	The car accelerated quickly when the traffic light turned green.
106	crack (N)	a thin break or narrow opening in a surface	There was a crack in the window glass from when the ball hit it during the game.
107	create (V)	to make something new that did not exist before	The students created a colorful poster to decorate the classroom wall together.
108	creep (V)	to move slowly and quietly without being noticed	The cat crept silently toward the bird in the garden without making any sound.
109	crush (V)	to press something hard so it breaks or becomes flat	She accidentally crushed the paper cup when she squeezed it too tightly in her hand.
110	cultivate (V)	to grow plants; to develop a skill or relationship over time	He carefully cultivated tomatoes in his backyard garden every summer.
111	dictate (V)	to give strict orders that others must follow; to speak for someone to write	The boss dictated all decisions without ever asking for anyone's opinion or input.
112	distinguish (V)	to notice or recognize the difference between two things	Young children sometimes cannot distinguish between the left and right hands.
113	flaw (N)	a mistake or imperfection that makes something less good	The only flaw in her excellent plan was that it would cost too much money.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
114	harvest (N/V)	collecting crops from the field; the crops that are collected	Farmers harvest wheat in the summer when it is fully ripe and ready to pick.
115	mirror (V)	to reflect or be very similar to something else	His sad expression mirrored how everyone in the room was feeling after the bad news.
116	obtain (V)	to get or achieve something through effort or process	You must study hard and pass a written test to obtain a driver's license.
117	particle (N)	a very small piece of something; a tiny fragment	Dust particles in the air made her sneeze several times during the morning.
118	settle (V)	to make a home in a new place; to solve a disagreement	The two neighbors finally settled their argument and shook hands with a smile.
119	transport (V)	to carry people or goods from one place to another	Trucks transport fresh food from farms to supermarkets across the country every day.

Lesson 9

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
120	accurate (Adj)	correct and without any mistakes or errors	The weather forecast was accurate; it rained exactly when the app had predicted.
121	classify (V)	to organize things into groups based on their type	The teacher asked students to classify animals as mammals, reptiles, or birds.
122	currency (N)	the system of money used in a specific country	When you travel to Japan, you need to exchange your currency for Japanese yen.
123	deep (Adj)	far below the surface; extending a long way down	The swimming pool is very deep at one end, so beginners should stay in the shallow area.
124	dense (Adj)	closely packed together; thick and difficult to move through	The forest was so dense that sunlight could barely reach the ground below.
125	depend on (V)	to need someone or something for support or survival	Children fully depend on their parents for food, shelter, safety, and love.
126	dim (Adj)	not bright; giving only a little light	The room was so dim that she turned on the lamp before she could read her book.
127	display (V)	to show or present something for others to see	The museum displays ancient coins from dozens of civilizations around the world.
128	exports (N)	goods that are sold and sent to other countries	Rice and rubber are among Thailand's most important exports to foreign markets.
129	gigantic (Adj)	extremely large; much bigger than normal	The gigantic elephant walked slowly through the crowd of amazed and excited tourists.
130	impressive (Adj)	causing admiration because something is very good or skillful	Her performance in the piano concert was so impressive that the audience stood up and clapped.
131	lasting (Adj)	continuing for a very long time; permanent	A great teacher can have a lasting and positive impact on a student's entire life.
132	treasury (N)	the government department that manages public money and finances	The national treasury announced plans to increase spending on education next year.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
133	uniform (Adj)	the same in all parts; consistent throughout with no variation	All the cookies were a uniform size because they were cut with the same shaped mold.
134	vibrant (Adj)	full of energy and life; bright and lively in color or character	The vibrant street market was full of beautiful colors, exciting sounds, and delicious smells.

Lesson 10

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
135	distinct (Adj)	clearly different or easily noticeable; not the same	There was a distinct smell of fresh coffee as soon as she walked into the café.
136	dominant (Adj)	the most powerful or important; having the most control	The dominant team won nearly every game throughout the entire championship season.
137	dormant (Adj)	not active for a period of time; temporarily at rest	The volcano was dormant for over 200 years before it suddenly erupted last month.
138	drab (Adj)	dull and uninteresting; lacking color or excitement	The drab gray walls in the office made employees feel tired and unmotivated.
139	dramatic (Adj)	very exciting, impressive, or sudden; capturing the imagination	The movie had a dramatic ending that absolutely nobody in the audience saw coming.
140	elaborate (Adj)	very detailed and complicated; having many carefully planned parts	The wedding cake had an elaborate design with hundreds of tiny handmade sugar flowers.
141	exceptional (Adj)	unusually good; much better than normal or expected	She received an exceptional score on the exam and won a full university scholarship.
142	hazardous (Adj)	very dangerous; likely to cause harm or injury	It is hazardous to drive on icy mountain roads without proper snow tires.
143	minuscule (Adj)	so extremely small it is almost unnoticeable	The difference between the two prices was minuscule, only a few cents, so she chose either.
144	prime (V/Adj)	to prepare something or someone; first in quality or importance	The coach primed the team before the match by giving a powerful and inspiring speech.
145	rudimentary (Adj)	very basic and at an early stage of development	She has a rudimentary knowledge of coding and can write only very simple programs.
146	sensitive (Adj)	easily affected by something; quick to notice emotions or feelings	His skin is very sensitive, so he only uses gentle soap and avoids strong chemicals.
147	superficial (Adj)	on the surface only; not deep or serious or thorough	The cut on her arm was superficial, so it only needed a small bandage, not stitches.
148	terrifying (Adj)	causing a very strong feeling of fear	Riding the roller coaster in complete darkness was absolutely terrifying but also exciting.
149	vigorous (Adj)	strong and full of energy, force, or determination	She does a vigorous workout at the gym for one full hour every single morning.

Lesson 11

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
150	amenity (N)	a feature or service that makes life more comfortable and enjoyable	The hotel offers many amenities including a swimming pool, gym, and free breakfast.
151	destroy (V)	to damage something so completely that it no longer exists	The fire destroyed the entire building in less than an hour, leaving only ashes.
152	disperse (V)	to spread out or move away in many different directions	After the outdoor concert ended, the large crowd dispersed and went home quickly.
153	dwelling (N)	a place where people live; a home or house	The family's dwelling was a small wooden house built near the edge of the river.
154	element (N)	a basic and important part of something larger	Trust and communication are key elements of any strong and lasting friendship.
155	elementary (Adj)	very basic and simple; at the most fundamental level	Even elementary cooking skills, like boiling water or making toast, are very useful to know.
156	eliminate (V)	to completely remove or get rid of something	The team carefully eliminated all errors from the report before submitting the final version.
157	emphasize (V)	to give special importance to something; to highlight	The doctor emphasized the importance of sleeping at least eight hours every night.
158	encircle (V)	to form a complete circle around something or someone	The children happily encircled the birthday cake and sang the happy birthday song together.
159	erratic (Adj)	unpredictable and irregular; not following a consistent pattern	His erratic behavior surprised his colleagues because he was usually calm and organized.
160	exaggerate (V)	to describe something as larger or worse than it really is	He always exaggerates his stories to make them sound more exciting and interesting.
161	mention (V)	to briefly say or write about something in passing	She mentioned that she would be moving to a new city at the end of the month.
162	pier (N)	a platform built over water where boats can dock or stop	The fishermen tied their boat to the pier and began unloading the day's fresh catch.
163	prevalent (Adj)	very common and widespread among a group or area	Colds are prevalent in winter when people stay indoors and the weather is cold.
164	release (V)	to set something free or let something go out	The wildlife organization released the recovered bird back into its natural habitat.

Lesson 12

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
165	benefit (N/V)	a helpful or good effect; to be useful or helpful to someone	Regular exercise benefits both your physical health and your mental wellbeing.
166	blind (Adj)	unable to see; unaware of the truth about something	She was blind to his faults because she cared about him so deeply.
167	broaden (V)	to make something wider or increase its range and scope	Traveling to different countries can greatly broaden your understanding of the world.
168	burgeon (V)	to grow or develop rapidly in a short amount of time	The café's popularity has been burgeoning since it was featured in a food magazine.
169	conspicuously (Adv)	in a way that is very obvious and easy for others to notice	She arrived conspicuously late and every person in the room turned to look at her.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
170	demand (N/V)	a strong need or request; to ask for something forcefully	He demanded a full refund immediately after the product arrived in a damaged condition.
171	endorse (V)	to officially and publicly support or approve something	The famous athlete endorsed the new sports drink in a popular television commercial.
172	enormous (Adj)	extremely large in size, amount, or degree	The enormous crowd at the stadium cheered loudly when the home team scored a goal.
173	entirely (Adv)	completely; in every way; without exception	She was entirely focused on finishing her project and did not notice the time passing.
174	erode (V)	to slowly wear away or gradually weaken something over time	Years of waves slowly eroded the cliff, making it dangerous to stand too close to the edge.
175	evaporate (V)	to disappear slowly; to change from liquid into vapor	Puddles of water evaporate quickly from the road on a hot and sunny summer day.
176	recover (V)	to get something back; to return to normal health after illness	She recovered quickly from the cold and returned to work after just three days of rest.
177	reportedly (Adv)	according to what people are saying; not yet officially confirmed	The celebrity is reportedly planning to release her new album sometime this coming year.
178	shift (N/V)	a change in position or direction; to move or change	There has been a big shift in people's attitudes toward recycling in recent years.
179	suffer (V)	to experience pain, difficulty, or something unpleasant	He suffered greatly when his closest friend suddenly moved to another country far away.

Lesson 13

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
180	dignitary (N)	an important and respected person, usually in a high government position	Many local dignitaries attended the grand opening ceremony of the new hospital.
181	crucial (Adj)	extremely important and necessary for a successful outcome	Getting enough sleep the night before an important exam is absolutely crucial.
182	elude (V)	to escape from someone or something in a clever way	The answer to the final question eluded him even after thinking hard for a long time.
183	evident (Adj)	easy to see or understand; obvious because of clear proof	It was evident from her big smile that she had received some really wonderful news.
184	exhaust (V)	to use something up completely; to make someone very tired	The long and difficult hike exhausted every single person in the hiking group.
185	extensive (Adj)	very large in area, range, or amount	She did extensive research for three months before writing her 50-page science report.
186	extremely (Adv)	to a very high degree; much more than normal	The soup was extremely hot, so she had to wait several minutes before drinking it.
187	face (V)	to deal with or confront a difficult or serious situation	The company faced serious financial problems last year but managed to survive.
188	facet (N)	one of many different aspects or parts of something	The new job has many facets, including writing, design, research, and communication.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
189	hero (N)	a person admired greatly for their brave or good actions	The firefighter was called a local hero for bravely saving three people from the building fire.
190	inaccessible (Adj)	impossible or very difficult to reach or get to	The remote mountain village was completely inaccessible during the heavy winter snowstorms.
191	obviously (Adv)	in a way that is very easy to see or understand	He had obviously not slept well because he had dark circles under both of his eyes.
192	predictably (Adv)	in a way that was already expected or easy to guess	Predictably, the students forgot most of what they had learned during the long summer break.
193	solve (V)	to find a correct answer or solution to a problem	The team worked together every day and finally solved the incredibly difficult puzzle.
194	suitable (Adj)	right or appropriate for a particular situation or purpose	Open sandals are not suitable footwear for a difficult hike on a rough mountain trail.

Lesson 14

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
195	ample (Adj)	more than enough; a large and sufficient amount	There is ample parking space at the shopping center, so you will always find a spot.
196	arid (Adj)	very dry with little or no rainfall; not able to support much life	Very few plants can survive in the arid climate of the desert region.
197	avoid (V)	to stay away from something or to prevent it from happening	She avoided eating sugar and processed food to significantly improve her overall health.
198	defy (V)	to refuse to follow rules; to go against something boldly	The student defied the school rules by using his mobile phone during a class exam.
199	enact (V)	to officially make something into a law	The government enacted a new traffic law requiring all passengers to wear seatbelts.
200	even (Adj)	smooth, flat, or equal; consistent throughout	She spread the icing evenly across the entire cake to make it look neat and professional.
201	feign (V)	to pretend to feel or have something you do not really have	He feigned a stomachache to avoid going to his cousin's very boring birthday party.
202	fertile (Adj)	able to produce a large amount of crops or vegetation	The rich and fertile farmland near the river produces large quantities of fresh vegetables.
203	freshly (Adv)	recently made, grown, or produced; not long ago	She enjoyed eating freshly baked bread straight from the oven every Sunday morning.
204	function (N)	the main purpose or role of something	The main function of a dictionary is to clearly explain the meanings of words.
205	fundamental (Adj)	basic, essential, and the most important part of something	Learning the alphabet is a fundamental step in learning how to read and write in English.
206	indiscriminate (Adj)	done without careful thought or choice; random and unplanned	The indiscriminate use of pesticides can seriously harm bees and other helpful insects.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
207	selective (Adj)	carefully choosing only the best from many available options	She was very selective about which universities she applied to, picking only the top ones.
208	spacious (Adj)	having a lot of open space; large and not cramped	The new apartment was spacious enough to comfortably fit a large dining table and sofa.
209	withstand (V)	to successfully resist or survive something very difficult	The well-built old house withstood the powerful earthquake without any serious damage.

Lesson 15

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
210	durable (Adj)	strong and made to last for a very long time	These hiking boots are very durable and should last for many years of regular use.
211	favor (V)	to prefer one thing over another; to like something more	The supervisor favored the first plan because it was simpler and much less expensive.
212	gain (N/V)	something obtained or achieved; to get something useful	She gained a great deal of confidence after giving her very first public speech.
213	generate (V)	to produce or create something, often energy or interest	Solar panels generate clean electricity from sunlight and help reduce energy bills.
214	halt (N/V)	a complete stop; to stop completely or suddenly	Work on the new bridge was halted due to dangerously strong storm conditions.
215	handle (V)	to deal with or manage a situation or task	She handled the angry customer calmly and very professionally without losing her cool.
216	harbor (N/V)	a safe place for ships; to hold onto a feeling without expressing it	He harbored a grudge against his coworker for years after one thoughtless comment.
217	harmful (Adj)	causing damage, injury, or having a negative effect	Eating too much sugar is harmful to your teeth and can also cause serious health problems.
218	insignificant (Adj)	too small or unimportant to have any meaningful effect	The minor spelling error in the report was insignificant and did not affect the overall message.
219	mysterious (Adj)	strange and not easily explained or understood	There was a mysterious package left on the doorstep with no name or return address on it.
220	perilous (Adj)	very dangerous and likely to cause harm or death	Driving on an icy road at night without proper tires is extremely perilous.
221	postpone (V)	to delay something and reschedule it for a later time	The football match was postponed because of the heavy rain and poor field conditions.
222	promote (V)	to encourage or help something grow; to raise someone to a higher position	The company promoted her to regional manager after she increased sales by 30 percent.
223	reject (V)	to refuse to accept, use, or agree to something	The bank rejected his loan application because his credit history was very poor.
224	substantial (Adj)	large and important; of real and significant value	She made a substantial improvement in her spoken English after just one year of study.

Lesson 16

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
225	conscientious (Adj)	very careful and hardworking; taking great care to do things correctly	The conscientious nurse checked every patient's medical chart twice to make sure it was right.
226	convey (V)	to communicate a message, idea, or feeling to someone	A skilled actor can convey strong and complex emotions without saying a single word.
227	encompass (V)	to include a very wide range of things within something	The course encompasses grammar, vocabulary, reading, writing, and speaking skills.
228	expansion (N)	the process of becoming larger, greater, or more widespread	The rapid expansion of the city means more roads, schools, and hospitals are urgently needed.
229	heighten (V)	to increase the level or intensity of something	The exciting live music heightened the already wonderful atmosphere at the outdoor party.
230	highlight (V)	to draw attention to or emphasize the most important part of something	The teacher highlighted the key vocabulary words in yellow for students to study and remember.
231	inadvertently (Adv)	by accident; without meaning to do something	She inadvertently deleted an important work file while cleaning up her computer drive.
232	inevitable (Adj)	certain to happen and impossible to prevent or avoid	Getting wet is inevitable if you walk outside without an umbrella during heavy rain.
233	infancy (N)	the earliest stage of development; the very beginning of something	This new technology is still in its infancy and will need many more years of development.
234	miraculously (Adv)	in a way that seems impossible or beyond explanation	The driver miraculously survived the terrible crash without suffering any serious injuries.
235	retrieve (V)	to find and bring something back from somewhere	The dog excitedly retrieved the ball from the grass and proudly brought it back to his owner.
236	systematically (Adv)	in a careful, organized, and step-by-step way	She systematically cleaned every room in the house, starting from the top floor downward.
237	unlikely (Adj)	not expected to happen; not probable given the circumstances	It is very unlikely to snow in Cambodia since the weather there is always warm.
238	unwarranted (Adj)	not fair or necessary; without any good reason or cause	His harsh criticism of her excellent work was completely unwarranted and upset the whole team.
239	zenith (N)	the highest point of success, power, or achievement	At the zenith of his musical career, the famous singer was selling millions of albums worldwide.

Lesson 17

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
240	agitate (V)	to make someone feel worried, anxious, or upset	The unexpected bad news agitated the entire team and made it hard for anyone to focus.
241	confidential (Adj)	private and secret; not meant to be shared with others	Your medical records are strictly confidential and cannot be shared without your permission.
242	delighted (Adj)	very happy and pleased about something	She was absolutely delighted when she learned that she had passed all of her final exams.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
243	discreetly (Adv)	in a careful and polite way that avoids drawing unwanted attention	He discreetly passed her a small note during the long meeting to warn her about the error.
244	documented (Adj)	supported or proven by written records or official evidence	The researcher's findings were thoroughly documented and available for anyone to verify.
245	gradually (Adv)	slowly and in small steps over a period of time	Her English pronunciation improved gradually as she practiced speaking every single day.
246	influence (N/V)	the power to affect others; to change what someone thinks or does	Good teachers can profoundly and positively influence the way their students see the world.
247	inordinate (Adj)	much more than is normal, reasonable, or necessary	She spent an inordinate amount of time choosing what to eat, and everyone grew tired of waiting.
248	instantly (Adv)	immediately; happening without any delay at all	When she pressed the power button, the new computer started up instantly.
249	intentionally (Adv)	done on purpose; not by accident or mistake	He intentionally arrived 20 minutes early to get the best seat in the very front row.
250	intrinsic (Adj)	belonging to the basic and true nature of something; essential	The intrinsic beauty of the natural landscape attracted thousands of visitors each year.
251	inundate (V)	to overwhelm someone with a very large amount of something	The company was inundated with job applications after posting the position online.
252	involve (V)	to include something or someone; to take an active part in something	The major renovation project involves teams from three completely different departments.
253	nominal (Adj)	very small in amount; in name only but not in actual substance	There is a nominal entry fee of just one dollar to visit the art museum on weekday mornings.
254	presumably (Adv)	most likely true based on what is known, but not confirmed	She is presumably still asleep since all the lights in her house are still off.

Lesson 18

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
255	absurd (Adj)	clearly foolish or unreasonable; ridiculous and not logical	It is completely absurd to wear a thick winter coat to the beach in the middle of July.
256	abuse (N/V)	wrong or harmful treatment; to use something in a harmful way	Using your company laptop for personal gaming at work is an abuse of company property.
257	allocation (N)	an amount of something set aside for a specific purpose or person	Each student received an equal allocation of art supplies to use for the class project.
258	balanced (Adj)	having equal or fair amounts on each side; well-proportioned	A balanced daily diet should include fruits, vegetables, proteins, and whole grains.
259	conservation (N)	the careful use and protection of natural resources and the environment	Conservation of water is especially important during long dry seasons.
260	fallacious (Adj)	based on false reasoning or wrong and misleading ideas	His fallacious claim that the Earth is flat has been proven wrong by science many times.
261	feasible (Adj)	possible and practical to do given the available resources	Building a community school in the village is feasible if we raise enough funds.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
262	lack (N/V)	not having enough of something that is needed; to be without something	A serious lack of sleep can make it very difficult to concentrate throughout the day.
263	limber (Adj)	flexible and easy to move; not stiff	Regular yoga keeps your body limber and significantly reduces the risk of muscle injury.
264	means (N)	a method, way, or tool used to do or achieve something	Email has become one of the most common means of communication in modern workplaces.
265	narrow (Adj)	not wide; covering only a limited range or area	The narrow alley between the two old buildings was too small for a car to fit through.
266	preconception (N)	an idea formed before knowing all the facts about something	She had a preconception that the city was dangerous, but she actually felt very safe there.
267	robust (Adj)	strong, healthy, and working well; able to handle difficult conditions	The company has a robust system for handling and quickly resolving customer complaints.
268	steady (Adj)	firm, stable, and not changing; regular and reliable	He walked at a steady pace and arrived at the office exactly on time without any rush.
269	swift (Adj)	very fast and quick in movement or action	The swift response from the fire department successfully prevented the fire from spreading.

Lesson 19

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
270	antiquated (Adj)	too old and outdated to be useful or effective anymore	The antiquated computer in the storage room was so slow that nobody wanted to use it.
271	coherent (Adj)	clear, logical, and very easy to follow or understand	Her essay was well-organized and coherent, so the teacher gave it a perfect score.
272	develop (V)	to grow, improve, or become more advanced over time	The young student developed strong reading skills by reading one book every single week.
273	fabricate (V)	to make up a false story in order to trick or deceive someone	He fabricated a weak excuse for being late, claiming his car had suddenly broken down.
274	investigation (N)	a careful and thorough examination to discover the truth	The police launched a full investigation after receiving multiple reports of a robbery.
275	normally (Adv)	in the usual or typical way; under normal conditions	Normally, the library closes at 9 p.m., but it stays open until midnight during exam week.
276	notice (V)	to become aware of something you see, hear, or sense	She noticed that her keys were missing only when she reached the front door of her apartment.
277	notion (N)	an idea, belief, or general opinion about something	He had absolutely no notion of how to cook until he started watching online cooking tutorials.
278	novel (Adj)	new, original, and not seen or thought of before	The company introduced a novel approach to online shopping that quickly became very popular.
279	opposition (N)	the act of strongly disagreeing with or resisting something	There was strong community opposition when the city planned to cut down the old park trees.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
280	record (N/V)	stored information; to write or save information for future use	She kept a careful record of all her monthly expenses in a small personal notebook.
281	relate (V)	to tell someone about something; to connect two different ideas	He related his experience of solo travel to inspire his friends to also try adventuring alone.
282	suspect (V)	to think something is probably true without having definite proof	The teacher suspected that the student had cheated because both exam papers were identical.
283	unbiased (Adj)	fair and not influenced by personal feelings or opinions	We need an unbiased referee who does not know either team to make the final decision.
284	varied (Adj)	including many different types; diverse and not all the same	The restaurant menu was beautifully varied, offering dishes from five completely different countries.

Lesson 20

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
285	accentuate (V)	to make something more noticeable or important; to emphasize	Her bright red scarf perfectly accentuated her warm smile and made her look very stylish.
286	disguise (N/V)	a change in appearance to hide who someone really is; to hide something	She disguised herself with a big hat and dark glasses so nobody would recognize her.
287	finance (N/V)	money used to run something; to provide money for something	The government financed the construction of new public schools in rural and remote areas.
288	initiate (V)	to start or begin something for the very first time	She initiated the team meeting by welcoming everyone and clearly explaining the day's agenda.
289	innovative (Adj)	using completely new and creative ideas that nobody has tried before	The startup launched an innovative product that quickly became popular around the world.
290	narrate (V)	to tell a story or describe events in order	The teacher narrated an exciting story about a brave young girl to teach the class about courage.
291	nevertheless (Adv)	despite that fact; even so; used to show contrast	It was raining heavily; nevertheless, hundreds of devoted fans came to watch the outdoor concert.
292	occasionally (Adv)	sometimes, but not very often; once in a while	She occasionally eats a small piece of cake, but she usually tries to avoid too much sugar.
293	omit (V)	to leave something out; to fail to include something	He accidentally omitted his phone number from the job application form before submitting it.
294	outlandish (Adj)	very strange and unusual; far beyond accepted norms of behavior	Her outlandish costume at the party attracted a great deal of attention from every guest.
295	overcome (V)	to successfully deal with or defeat a problem or difficulty	He overcame his fear of public speaking by joining a school debate club and practicing often.
296	partially (Adv)	not completely; only to some degree or extent	The window was partially open, letting in some fresh air but not making the room too cold.
297	pass (V)	to officially approve or agree to something by a formal vote	The city council passed a new safety law requiring all bicycle riders to wear helmets.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
298	portray (V)	to represent or show someone or something in a picture, film, or writing	The documentary portrays the daily life of families living in a small coastal fishing village.
299	submit (V)	to give something to someone for them to consider, review, or decide on	Students are required to submit all their completed assignments by midnight every Friday.

Lesson 21

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
300	decline (N/V)	a gradual drop in quality or quantity; to become worse	His health declined rapidly after he completely stopped exercising and eating well.
301	gather (V)	to collect things together; to come together as a group	Friends and family gathered at the house to celebrate her graduation with a big party.
302	motion (N)	the act of moving; a formal suggestion made during a meeting	He made a gentle motion with his hand to quietly signal the waiter to bring the bill.
303	partisan (Adj)	strongly supporting one side only; clearly biased toward one group	The news article was too partisan and only presented one side of the political story.
304	pattern (N)	a regular and repeated design, arrangement, or sequence of events	She chose a beautiful fabric with a bright floral pattern to make a new summer dress.
305	phenomena (N)	natural events or facts; unusual or remarkable things that can be observed	Rainbows are beautiful natural phenomena caused by sunlight passing through water droplets.
306	philanthropic (Adj)	showing care for others, especially by giving money to help people in need	The philanthropic businessman donated millions of dollars to build schools in poor villages.
307	placid (Adj)	calm, peaceful, and not easily upset or disturbed	The surface of the lake was so placid in the early morning that it looked just like a mirror.
308	plentiful (Adj)	available in very large amounts; more than enough	Fresh seafood is plentiful in small coastal towns during the busy summer fishing season.
309	reaction (N)	a response to something; what happens when two substances interact	Her reaction to winning the award was total shock, followed immediately by happy tears.
310	rhythm (N)	a regular and repeated pattern of sounds, beats, or movements	The children clapped their hands enthusiastically to the fast rhythm of the music.
311	scenic (Adj)	having beautiful natural views; pleasant to look at	The long scenic road to the coast is much more enjoyable to drive along than the highway.
312	shallow (Adj)	not deep; extending only a short distance down from the surface	Young children can splash and play safely in the shallow end of the swimming pool.
313	sheltered (Adj)	protected from wind, rain, danger, or difficulties	She found a sheltered spot under a large old tree to sit and wait during the rainstorm.
314	vanishing (Adj)	disappearing slowly from sight or existence; becoming extinct	The snow leopard is a vanishing species that needs urgent protection to survive.

Lesson 22

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
315	account (N)	a detailed description or report of an event; a bank record	She gave a very detailed account of everything that had happened during the accident.
316	archaic (Adj)	very old and no longer used or suitable for modern times	Using a fax machine to send documents seems completely archaic now that we have email.
317	hasten (V)	to do something quickly; to make something happen sooner than planned	He hastened to finish all his work before the deadline was suddenly moved forward.
318	hue (N)	a color or a particular shade of a specific color	The beautiful sunset painted the entire sky in warm hues of orange, pink, and purple.
319	illustration (N)	a picture, drawing, or diagram used to help explain something	The science textbook had colorful illustrations that helped students understand difficult concepts.
320	inactive (Adj)	not moving or doing anything; not working or functioning	The old factory has been completely inactive for over ten years and is now overgrown with weeds.
321	intricate (Adj)	having many small, complex, and carefully arranged details	The intricate pattern on the handmade carpet took the skilled artist six months to complete.
322	magnitude (N)	the great size or important scale of something	Scientists measured the magnitude of the earthquake to understand how powerful it was.
323	oblige (V)	to require or force someone to do something; to do a favor	He felt obliged to help his elderly neighbor carry heavy grocery bags up the stairs.
324	overlook (V)	to fail to notice something important; to ignore or neglect	Do not overlook small details when proofreading because even one error can change the meaning.
325	poll (N/V)	a survey that asks people their opinions; to ask for votes	The school conducted a poll to find out which school lunch option students preferred most.
326	position (N)	a job or role in an organization; a specific place or location	She applied for a teaching position at a well-known language school in the city center.
327	practical (Adj)	useful and realistic in real situations; sensible and functional	It is more practical to buy a reliable second-hand car than a brand-new expensive one.
328	predominant (Adj)	the most powerful, common, or important element in a group	Rice is the predominant staple food eaten in the daily meals of many Asian countries.
329	prompt (V/Adj)	to cause something to happen; to do something without delay; on time	The manager's sudden announcement promptly prompted many urgent questions from the team.

Lesson 23

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
330	analogous (Adj)	similar to something else in some important way; comparable	Learning a musical instrument is analogous to learning a language; both need daily practice.
331	approximately (Adv)	close to the correct amount but not completely exact	The train station is approximately 10 minutes away from the hotel by taxi.
332	compel (V)	to force someone to do something, often through external pressure	The sudden heavy rainstorm compelled all the outdoor students to run quickly inside.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
333	formidable (Adj)	very impressive and difficult to deal with or overcome	The final exam was formidable, but she passed confidently because she had prepared well.
334	intrusive (Adj)	disturbing or invading someone's personal privacy or space	His constant personal questions felt very intrusive and made her feel uncomfortable.
335	periodically (Adv)	at regular intervals; happening repeatedly from time to time	The teacher periodically checks students' notebooks to make sure everyone is taking notes.
336	prone (Adj)	likely or inclined to do or experience something repeatedly	People who sit all day at a desk are prone to back pain if they do not take walking breaks.
337	prophetic (Adj)	correctly predicting or foretelling what will happen in the future	His early warning about the company's financial problems turned out to be completely prophetic.
338	proportions (N)	the relative size of one thing compared to another; dimensions	The architect drew the building plans with accurate proportions to ensure all sizes were correct.
339	readily (Adv)	willingly and quickly; without any difficulty or hesitation	Fresh tropical fruit is readily available at local markets throughout the country all year.
340	reliably (Adv)	in a consistent and trustworthy way that can always be depended on	The old car still starts reliably every cold morning even though it is more than 20 years old.
341	reluctantly (Adv)	in an unwilling way; without wanting to do something	She reluctantly agreed to stay and work late, even though she already had plans for dinner.
342	renown (N)	being widely known and respected for excellent qualities or achievements	The young chef gained international renown for his unique and creative style of cooking.
343	sacrifice (N/V)	giving up something valuable for something more important	She sacrificed her entire vacation to finish the important project before the company deadline.
344	triumph (N/V)	a great victory or success; to win or succeed against difficulty	Winning the national championship was the team's greatest triumph of the entire season.

Lesson 24

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
345	affordable (Adj)	reasonably priced; possible to pay for without spending too much	This new smartphone model is affordable and still has all the features most people need.
346	contaminated (Adj)	made dirty, impure, or unsafe by adding a harmful substance	The contaminated river near the factory could not be used for fishing or drinking water.
347	discernible (Adj)	noticeable and able to be clearly seen or detected	There was a discernible improvement in her pronunciation after just one month of daily practice.
348	flourishing (Adj)	growing very well and becoming more and more successful	The small family bakery is flourishing and now has three popular locations across the city.
349	maintain (V)	to keep something in good condition; to continue something over time	It is important to maintain a regular exercise routine to keep your body healthy and strong.
350	mediocre (Adj)	not very good but also not very bad; of only average quality	The food at the new restaurant was mediocre and definitely not worth the high prices charged.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
351	negligible (Adj)	so small or unimportant that it is not worth worrying about	The price difference between the two items was negligible, so she simply picked the first one.
352	parallel (Adj)	similar and happening at the same time; side by side, never meeting	The two police investigations ran in parallel and surprisingly reached exactly the same conclusion.
353	peculiar (Adj)	strange or unusual in a way that is hard to explain	There was a peculiar smell coming from the kitchen that nobody in the house could identify.
354	potent (Adj)	very strong, powerful, and producing a strong effect	The medicine was potent and began to relieve her pain within just 30 short minutes.
355	remarkable (Adj)	unusual and worth noticing; impressively good or surprising	The elderly man's memory was remarkable; he could recall events from over 70 years ago.
356	scattered (Adj)	spread out in many different places; not gathered together	There were only scattered clouds in the sky, and the rest of the day was beautifully sunny.
357	solid (Adj)	firm and well-made; reliable, strong, and dependable	The new employee showed solid and consistent performance throughout her very first month at work.
358	somewhat (Adv)	to some degree; a little but not completely	I am somewhat tired after the long journey, but I can still help finish the project tonight.
359	tedious (Adj)	very long, repetitive, and boring; requiring a lot of patience	Entering hundreds of numbers into a spreadsheet by hand is an extremely tedious task.

Lesson 25

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
360	briefly (Adv)	for a short period of time; in a few short words	The teacher briefly explained the homework assignment right before the bell rang.
361	circulate (V)	to move around and reach many people; to spread widely	Exciting rumors about the new principal circulated quickly among all the students.
362	consistently (Adv)	always in the same way; without changing or varying	She consistently earns top marks because she dedicates time to study every single day.
363	exhibit (N/V)	to show or display something for others to see; a public display	The students proudly exhibited their science fair projects in the school gymnasium.
364	found (V)	to officially start or establish an organization or institution	She founded a small nonprofit organization dedicated to helping homeless animals find homes.
365	improperly (Adv)	not done in the correct or appropriate way; incorrectly	The new machine broke down quickly because it had been improperly installed by the technician.
366	impulsively (Adv)	acting on a sudden feeling without thinking carefully first	She impulsively bought an expensive pair of shoes she did not really need just because they were on sale.
367	infrequently (Adv)	not very often; rarely happening	He infrequently calls his childhood friends even though he genuinely misses spending time with them.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
368	isolated (Adj)	separated from others; alone and far away from everything	The mountain village was completely isolated during the heavy snowstorm and could receive no supplies.
369	overtly (Adv)	openly and without trying to hide; not done in secret	He overtly disagreed with the manager's plan by saying so clearly in front of the entire team.
370	profoundly (Adv)	deeply and in a very meaningful and significant way	The powerful documentary about ocean pollution profoundly changed her views on using plastic.
371	sharply (Adv)	suddenly and strongly; with great speed or force or intensity	Prices rose sharply after the main factory shut down, making everyday goods harder to afford.
372	situated (Adj)	placed or located in a particular place or position	The hotel is conveniently situated just five minutes from the international airport.
373	subsequently (Adv)	happening after something else; as a result of something	She completed the training program and was subsequently offered a promotion within just two months.
374	unmistakable (Adj)	so clear or distinct that it cannot be confused with anything else	The wonderful smell of fresh bread from the bakery was unmistakable even from down the street.

Lesson 26

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
375	chaotic (Adj)	completely disorganized and out of control; in total disorder	The first day back at school was chaotic because nobody knew which classroom to go to.
376	characteristic (N/Adj)	a typical quality or feature; being typical of a person or thing	Patience and kindness are essential characteristics of an outstanding and effective teacher.
377	controversial (Adj)	causing strong and widespread disagreement or debate among people	The school's new grading policy was controversial; some teachers loved it and others opposed it.
378	exemplify (V)	to be a good or typical example that clearly shows something	Her hard work and dedication perfectly exemplify all the qualities of an excellent student.
379	gratifying (Adj)	giving a strong feeling of pleasure, satisfaction, or reward	It was deeply gratifying to see her students succeed and excel after months of hard work.
380	interpret (V)	to understand or explain the meaning of something	Different people can interpret the same piece of modern art in very different and personal ways.
381	launch (N/V)	to start something new; to send something forward with force	The technology company launched its exciting new app with a major worldwide marketing campaign.
382	legitimate (Adj)	allowed by the law; reasonable and acceptable to most people	She had a completely legitimate complaint about the product and quickly received a full refund.
383	particular (Adj)	specific or special; more than usual; very careful about details	She had a particular and effective way of explaining complex grammar rules simply.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
384	radiant (Adj)	sending out bright light; looking very happy, healthy, and beautiful	The bride looked absolutely radiant in her elegant white dress as she walked down the aisle.
385	ridge (N)	the long, narrow, highest part of a mountain or raised surface	The tired hikers finally rested when they reached the rocky ridge and admired the view below.
386	span (N/V)	the length of time or distance between two points; to extend across	The impressive suspension bridge spans over 1,000 meters from one side of the bay to the other.
387	spontaneous (Adj)	done without any planning; happening naturally and suddenly	They made a completely spontaneous decision to drive to the beach on a sunny Saturday afternoon.
388	stream (N)	a steady, continuous flow of something; a small natural river	There was a constant stream of excited visitors entering the popular museum on its opening day.
389	striking (Adj)	attracting very strong attention; very impressive and memorable	She wore a striking and elegant red dress that every single guest at the event noticed.

Lesson 27

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
390	aptly (Adv)	in a way that is very suitable and appropriate for the situation	The new café was aptly named 'Fresh Start' because all its food was made completely from scratch.
391	demonstration (N)	a show or explanation of how something works or is done	The experienced chef gave a live cooking demonstration teaching the audience how to make sushi.
392	ingredients (N)	the individual things combined together to make something	The secret to her delicious homemade cake was using only the freshest and highest-quality ingredients.
393	involuntarily (Adv)	without choosing to; not on purpose; without conscious control	She involuntarily burst out laughing during the quiet exam when she read a surprisingly funny question.
394	marvel (N/V)	something that is wonderful and amazing; to feel great wonder	The engineers who designed the bridge proudly called it a modern marvel of structural engineering.
395	measurable (Adj)	able to be clearly counted, observed, or detected	The student showed measurable progress in her math performance from the beginning to the end of term.
396	moderate (Adj)	not too much and not too little; average and reasonable in amount	She exercises at a comfortable, moderate pace for 30 minutes each day to maintain her health.
397	odd (Adj)	strange or unusual; not what you would normally expect	It was very odd that all the office lights were off in the middle of a busy working day.
398	reflection (N)	an image seen in a mirror or water; careful thought about something	Looking at her reflection in the still pond, she noticed just how tired she had been looking lately.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
399	supposedly (Adv)	according to what some people say or believe; generally thought to be true	This small café supposedly makes the absolute best coffee in the entire city, so we tried it.
400	sustained (Adj)	continuing at the same level for a long time without stopping	A sustained effort over many difficult months finally led to her success in learning the language.
401	symbols (N)	signs or objects that represent a particular idea, concept, or meaning	In many cultures around the world, the white dove is a well-known symbol of peace.
402	synthesis (N)	combining different elements or ideas together to form something new	The groundbreaking research paper offered a synthesis of ideas from many different scientific fields.
403	tangible (Adj)	real and able to be touched or clearly seen; not just theoretical	After many months of patient effort, they finally began to see tangible results in their students.
404	tightly (Adv)	firmly and securely; without leaving any space or gap	She gripped her bag tightly on the crowded bus to make sure no one could take it from her.

Lesson 28

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
405	aggravating (Adj)	making a bad situation even worse; very annoying and frustrating	It was extremely aggravating to wait in line for two hours only to find the event was sold out.
406	amusement (N)	entertainment, fun, and enjoyment; the pleasant feeling of finding something funny	The children wandered through the colorful amusement park with bright eyes full of pure excitement.
407	conceivably (Adv)	possibly; in a believable way that can be imagined	With enough daily practice, you could conceivably become fluent in English within two years.
408	convert (V)	to change something completely from one form, use, or purpose to another	The old abandoned factory was converted into a stylish and modern apartment building.
409	curative (Adj)	having the ability to heal or cure an illness or injury	The curative properties of the herbal tea helped her recover from the bad cold much faster.
410	debilitating (Adj)	making someone very weak and unable to function properly	The debilitating summer heat made it completely impossible to do any outdoor work in the afternoon.
411	deplete (V)	to use up most or all of a supply, leaving very little behind	Running the air conditioner at full power all day quickly depleted the monthly electricity quota.
412	finite (Adj)	limited in amount; having an end; not going on forever	There is a finite number of seats available on the plane, so it is best to book very early.
413	perceive (V)	to notice or become aware of something through your senses or mind	She perceived a subtle change in his tone of voice and realized immediately that he was upset.
414	security (N)	the feeling or state of being safe, protected, and free from danger	The new alarm system gave the whole family a much greater sense of security at night.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
415	toxic (Adj)	very poisonous and harmful to living things; capable of causing death	The factory was temporarily closed because toxic chemicals were found leaking into the nearby river.
416	tranquility (N)	a state of complete peace, calm, and quiet without disturbance	She deeply enjoyed the tranquility of the quiet countryside after living in a noisy city for years.
417	trap (N/V)	a device for catching something; to catch and hold something by trickery	The clever spider carefully trapped the unsuspecting fly in its web before it could escape.
418	undeniably (Adv)	in a way that is completely clear and cannot be doubted or denied	She is undeniably the strongest student in the class; her consistently perfect grades prove it.
419	underestimated (V)	thought something was less difficult or important than it actually turned out to be	He seriously underestimated how long the project would take and ended up missing the deadline.

Lesson 29

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
420	acknowledge (V)	to openly recognize and accept that something is true	She openly acknowledged that she had made a mistake and sincerely apologized to the whole team.
421	acquire (V)	to get or gain something over a period of time through effort	He acquired excellent cooking skills by attending weekend cooking classes for an entire year.
422	assimilate (V)	to gradually become part of a larger group or culture	It took her some time to assimilate into her new school, but she eventually made many good friends.
423	assortment (N)	a collection of different types of things grouped together	The bakery sells a wonderful assortment of pastries including muffins, croissants, and cinnamon rolls.
424	caliber (N)	the level of quality, skill, or ability someone or something has	The school is well-known throughout the region for hiring teachers of the very highest caliber.
425	condensed (Adj)	made shorter or smaller while keeping all the most important information	He read a condensed version of the lengthy report because he did not have time for the full one.
426	contradictory (Adj)	saying the opposite of or conflicting with another statement or fact	The two witnesses gave completely contradictory accounts, making it very hard for police to know the truth.
427	disregard (V)	to pay no attention to something important; to completely ignore	She disregarded the clear warning on the label and used far too much of the cleaning product.
428	precious (Adj)	having very great value or being deeply loved and treasured	Clean, safe drinking water is precious and must never be wasted or taken for granted.
429	prominent (Adj)	famous and well-respected in a field; easy to notice or see	He is a prominent figure in environmental science who has won several international awards.
430	requisite (Adj/N)	required or necessary for a specific purpose; a necessary condition	Patience and empathy are requisite qualities for anyone who works with young children.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
431	unravel (V)	to solve or explain something complicated; to come apart gradually	Slowly and carefully, the clever detective unraveled the mystery by finding one small clue at a time.
432	vague (Adj)	not clear or specific enough; difficult to understand properly	His directions to the meeting room were so vague that she got completely lost on the way.
433	vast (Adj)	extremely large in size, area, or amount	The vast Amazon rainforest is home to an incredible variety of millions of plant and animal species.
434	volume (N)	the amount of space something occupies; the level of sound	The heavy volume of traffic on the main road increases dramatically during morning rush hour.

Lesson 30

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
435	charisma (N)	a natural and powerful ability to attract, charm, and inspire people	The new teacher had so much charisma that students genuinely looked forward to every single class.
436	clever (Adj)	quick to learn and think; skilled at finding smart and creative solutions	The clever student found a smart shortcut to solve the difficult math problem in half the usual time.
437	convince (V)	to make someone truly believe something or agree to do something	He finally convinced his parents to let him study abroad by calmly explaining all the real benefits.
438	endure (V)	to survive through something very painful, difficult, or unpleasant	The brave hikers had to endure five straight hours of cold rain before reaching the mountain shelter.
439	forfeit (N/V)	to lose or give something up as a penalty; a penalty for failing to act	The team had to forfeit the important match because they arrived too late to start playing.
440	precarious (Adj)	not safe, stable, or secure; likely to fall, fail, or become worse	She was in a very precarious situation after losing her job just as her rent payment was due.
441	severe (Adj)	very extreme, serious, and harmful; much worse than normal	The severe overnight storm knocked down many trees and left thousands of homes without electricity.
442	sporadic (Adj)	happening at irregular and unpredictable times; not consistent or regular	Her attendance at class was sporadic, which meant she often missed important lessons and content.
443	superior (Adj)	of much better quality than others; higher in rank or position	The product's clearly superior quality made customers very willing to pay the higher asking price.
444	wanton (Adj)	done without any reason, care, or regard for the consequences	The wanton destruction of trees in the public park made every single person in the neighborhood furious.
445	weak (Adj)	not strong; lacking power, force, or the ability to perform well	The mobile internet signal was too weak in the basement, so she moved upstairs to work comfortably.

#	Word (Part of Speech)	Definition	Example
446	widespread (Adj)	found or happening in many places or among many people	There is widespread scientific agreement that climate change is one of humanity's most serious challenges.
447	wisdom (N)	deep knowledge and excellent judgment gained through years of experience	Her grandmother's wisdom helped her make the right and confident decision when she felt confused.
448	witticism (N)	a clever, witty, and funny remark or joke	His quick witticisms kept everyone on the long bus journey laughing and entertained.
449	woo (V)	to try to gain someone's favor, love, support, or business	The candidate tried hard to woo voters by promising to build more parks, schools, and public facilities.

Written by Chesda TheCyber